

For What His Love Denies

Concerning this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: - 2 Cor. 12:8-9

A  $\flat$  - 3 - MI

Fanny J. Crosby

Hubert P. Main, 1904

1. God does not give me all I ask,
2. Some-times I miss a treas - ured link
3. How ten - der - ly He lead - eth me

Nor an - swer as I pray, But O, my From friend-ship's hal - lowed chain, And yet His When earth - ly hopes are dim And when I cup is brim - ming o'er With bless - ings day by day.

smile is my re - ward For ev - 'ry throb of pain.
falt - er by the way He bids me lean on Him.

How oft the joy I tho't with - held,
I look be - yond where pur - er joys,
He lifts my soul a - bove the clouds

De - lights my long-ing eyes. And so I thank Him
De - light my long-ing eyes. And so I thank Him Where friend-ship nev - er dies. And so I thank Him from my heart For what His love de - nies.

from my heart For what His love de - nies.
from my heart For what His love de - nies.