

Count Thy Mercies

Jehovah is good to all; And his tender mercies are over all his works. - Ps. 145:9

G - 4 - MI

E. A. Hoffman

Elisha A. Hoffman, 1899

The musical score consists of three staves of music in G major, 4/4 time. The top staff uses soprano C-clef, the middle staff alto F-clef, and the bottom staff bass G-clef. The music features various note heads (solid black, hollow white, and cross-hatched) and stems, with some stems pointing up and others down. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below the notes. The first section of lyrics is:

1. Ev - 'ry day new mer - cies greet thee; Ev - 'ry day new
2. O how man - i - fold God's bless-ings! More than thou canst
3. Not a good his hand with - hold-eth; Not a joy his
4. Shall we not be grate - ful to him For his mer - cies

The second section continues:

joys are thine: Gifts of heav-en's lov - ing - kind-ness; To - kens num-ber o'er; Yet in kind-ness he be - stow-eth Dai - ly love de - nies; Each new bless-ing he un - fold - eth Fills our man - i - fold, And in each new gift he sends us All his

The Chorus section begins:
