

Lord, How Thy Wonders Are Displayed

And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Jehovah; - Ps. 89:5

A \flat - 3 - SOL

Isaac Watts

Samuel Webbe

The musical score consists of three staves of music in common time, key signature A flat. The top staff uses a treble clef, the middle staff an alto clef, and the bottom staff a bass clef. The music features various note heads (solid black, hollow white, and diamond shapes) and rests, with some notes connected by horizontal stems. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below the notes. The first section of lyrics is:

1. Lord, how Thy won-ders are dis - play'd Where - 'er I
2. There's not a plant or flow'r be - low But makes Thy
3. Crea - tures, as num'-rous as they be, Are sub - jects

The second section continues:

turn my eye, If I sur - - vey the glo - ries known; And clouds a - rise, and to Thy care; There's not a place where

The third section concludes:

ground I tread, Or gaze up - on the sky!
tem - pests blow, By or der - on from Thy throne.
we can flee, But God is pres - ent there.
